

Identification Label

Your playground or outdoor gym equipment should have an ID label providing details of the brand and the year installed. This label will generally be affixed to a post on your equipment.

If you can locate this and provide details from this label it will streamline our ability to understand your needs.

Example ID Label